

HQ75

The Queer Librarian Song

Wendi Hoffenberg

Voice

We have our facts We have our stacks, my friend, we have our sto-ries;
5 cat-a - logs and cat-e - gor-ies; be - ing or - ga - nized is how we thrive We 10 pag-i - nate and some-times bind, but eve-ning comes and we un - wind by hang-in' out at 15 H Q Sev-en Five. Sev-en five, sev-en five, makes you glad to be a - live,
21 when you're hang - in' out at H Q Sev - en Five. We clear our throats
26 We write our notes in pen-cil in the mar-gin; we don't care to write too large in 31 pla - ces oth - ers might not care to see. But af - ter days of Boole-an quer - y, 36 I've just got to read queer theor - y, and I know you're in the stacks with me.

©2012

41

 Sev - en five, sev - en five, makes you glad to be a - live, when you're hang - in'

46

 out at H Q Sev - en Five. We _____ spend our days In the ex - act - ing ways of Mel - vil Dew - ey; it's e - nough to drive you screw - y, foll - ow - ing each sha - ky refer - ence lead. Our pa - trons think we live our lives as no one's hus - bands.

51

56

61

 Sev - en five, no one's wives; they're sad, but don't they no - tice what we read?

66

 sev - en five, makes you glad to be a - live, when you're hang - in' out at H Q

71

 Sev - en Five.